American interests during the civil war in Japan over the abolition of the Shogunate and the restoration of the Mikado.

1868 - Uruguay - February 7 and 8, 19 to 26 - To protect foreign residents and the customhouse during an insurrection at Montevideo

1868 - Colombia - April 7 - at Aspinwall - To protect passengers and treasure in transit during the absence of local police or troops on the occasion of the death of the President

1870 - Mexico, June 17 and 18 To destroy the pirate ship Forward which had been run aground about 40 miles up the Rio Tecap 1870 - Hawaii miles up the Rio Tecapan.

1870 — Hawaiian Islands
September 21 — To place
American flag at half mast upo
death of Queen Kalama, whe
American consul at Honolulu

American consul at Honolulu not assume responsibility for sc 1871 - Korea – June 10 to To punish natives for depredat Americans, particularly for my the crew of the General Sherr burning the schooner, and fo firing on other American sm taking soundings up the Salee for 1873 - Colombia (Bay of Pamay 7 to 22, September October 9 — To protect Americants during hostilities possession of the government of State of Panama.

State of Panama.

1873 - Mexico - United State troops crossed the Mexican bor repeatedly in pursuit of cattle a reciprocal pursuits by Mexican troops into our border territory. The cases were only technically invasions, if that, although Mexico protested constantly. Notable cases were at Remolina in Mar 1873 and at Las Cuevas in 1875. Washington orders often supported these excursions. Agreements between Mexico and the United States, the first mexico and the United States, the Irist in 1882, finally legitimized such raids. They continued intermittently, with minor disputes, until 1896.

1874 — Hawaiian Island and protect American lives and interests during the inauguration of a new king.

1876 - Mexico - May 18 - To police the town of Matamoros temporarily while it was without other government government. 1882 - Egypt - July 14 to 18 - To protect American interests during warfare between British and Egyptians and looting of the city of Alexandria by Assibitation by Arabs. 1885 - Panama (Colon) - January 18 and 19 - To guard the valuables in transit over the Panama Railroad, and the safes and vaults of the coduring revolutionary activity. In March, April, and May in the cities of Colon and Panama, to reestablish freedom of transit during revolutionary 1888 - Korea - June - To protect American residents in Seoul during unsettled political conditions, when an outbreak of the populace was outbreak of the populace was expected.

1888-89 - Samoa - November 14, 1888, to March 20, 1889 - To protect American citizens and the consulted during a native civil war.

1888 - Haiti - December 20 - To persuade the Haitian Government to give up an American steamer which had been seized on the charge of breach of blockade. 1889 - Hawaiian Islands - July 30 and 31 - To protect American interests at Honolulu during a revolution. 1890 - Argentina - A naval party landed to protect our consulate and legation in Buenos Aires.

1891 — Haiti — To protect American lives and property on Navassa Island when Negro laborers got out of control.

out of control.

1891 — Bering Sea — July 2 to October 5 — To stop seal poaching.

1891 — Chile — August 28 to 30 —
To protect the American consulate and the women and children who had taken refuge in it during a revolution in Valparaiso.

1893 — Hawaii — January 16 to Ostensibly to protect April 1 — Ostensibly to protect American lives and property; actually to promote a provisional government under Sanford B. Dole, This action was disavowed by the United States.

disavowed by the United States.

1894 - Brazil - January - To protect American commerce and shipping at Rio de Janeiro during a Brazilian civil war. No landing was attempted but there was a display of naval force, 1894 - Nicaragua - July 6 to August 7 - To protect American August 7 - To protect American interests at Bluefields following a revolution. 1894-96 - Korea - July 24, 1894 to April 3, 1896. - To protect American lives and interests at Seoul during and following the Sino-Japanese War. A guard of marines was kent of the American legation most of the time until April 1896. 1894-95 – China – Marings were stationed at Tientsin and penetrated to Peking for protection purposes during sing for protection purpossystatings. Sino-lapanese War. 189695 — China Nayar vesselacità, and used sino fortat whang for protection of rectain the sinonals. March 8 to 9 protect Ambacha interests during statistics in the town of Boos de the sinonals. The sinonals was a sinonal the Sino-Japanese War. 189495

g political umrest.

To properly American three and the properly American three and the properly of San Juan del Sur.

Span Train Span Train Span Train San Juan del Sur.

successor to the lippine Islands
To program American interests
To the lippine Islands
To th

1900 China - May 24 to September 28 - To protect foreign lives during the Boxer rising, lives during the Boxer Itsing, particularly at Peking. For many years after the experience a permanent legation guard was maintained in Peking, and was strengthened at times as trouble threatened. It was still there in 1934.

1901 - Colombia (State of Panama) November 20 to December 4 protect American property on the Isthmus and to keep transit lines open during serious revolutionary disturbances. 1902 - Colombia - April 16 to 23 property at Bocas del Toro during a civil war. To protect American lives and il war. 1902 — Colombia (State of Panama) 1702 - Colombia (State of Panama)

- September 17 to November 18 - To place armed guards on all trains crossing the Isthmus and to keep the railroad line open.
1903 - Honduras - March 23 to 30
or 31 - To protect the America-or 31 - To protect the American consulate and the steamship wharf at consulate and the steamship whart at Puerto Cortez during a period of revolutionary activity. 1903 – Dominican Republic – March 30 to April 21 – To protect American interests in the city of Santo Domingo during a revolutionary

1903 – Syria – September 7 to 12 To protect the American consulate in Beirut when a local Moslem uprising as feared s feared. 1903-04 - Panama - To protect American interests and lives during a following the revolution for independence from Colombia over onstruction of the Isthmian Canal.

With brief intermissions, United States
Marines were stationed on the Isthmus
from November 4, 1903, to January

21, 1914, to guard American interests. Dominican Republic January 2 to February 11 - To protect January 2 to February 11 – To protect American interests in Puerto Plata and Sosua and Santo Domingo City during revolutionary fighting. 1904-05 – Korea – Marine guard sent to Seoul for protection during

Russo-Japanese War.

Russo-Japanese war.

1906-09 – Cuba – September 1906
to January 23, 1909 – Intervention to restore order, protect foreigners, and establish a stable government after serious revolutionary activity.

1907 – Honduras – March 18 to June 8 – To protect American interests during a war between Honduras and Nicaragua; troops were rollidada and Nicaragua; troops were stationed for a few days or weeks in Trujuilo, Ceiba, Puerto Cortez, San Pedro, Laguna, and Choloma.

1910 - Nicaragua - February 22 -

During a civil war, to get information of conditions at Corinto; May 19, to of conditions at Corinto; May 19, to September 4, to protect American interests at Bindfields.

1911 Horduras January 20 and some specks the carter of protect American lives and interests during a civil war in Honduras.

1911 - China - Approaching Alagary and 10 men in October 1110 May 1875.

Wuchang to cooler missionalist protection of the matind of the missionalist protection of the American Conference on the missionalist protection of the matind and a conference on the missionalist protection of the missionalist protec and to prevent scient by the Covernment of any America covernment of any America covernment of the United States are the United Stat

legation at rebellion in 1912 which rebellion in 1912, which were redirected by the invasion of China by Japan and finally ended by war between Japan and the United States in 1941, led to demonstrations and landing parties for protection in China continuously and at many points from 1912 on to 1941. The guard at Peking and along the route to the sea was maintained until 1941. In 1927, the United States had 5,670 troops ashore in China and 44 naval vessels in its waters. In 1933 we had 3,027 armed waters. In 1933 we had 3,027 armed men ashore. All this protective action was in general terms based on treaties with China ranging from 1858 to 1901.

1913 - Mexico - September 5 to 7 A few marines landed at Claris Estero to aid in evacuating American citizens and others from the Yaqui Valley, made dangerous for foreigners by civil strife.

by civil strife.

1914 - Haiti - January 29 to February 9, February 20 to 21,
October 19 - To protect American nationals in a time of dangerous unrest.

1914 - Dominican Republic - June and July - During a revolutionary movement, United States naval forces by gunfire stopped the bombardment of Puerto Plata, and by threat of force maintained Santo Domingo City as a neutral zone. 1914-17 - Mexico - The undeclared Mexican-American hostilities following the Dolphin affair and Villa's raids included capture of Vera Cruz and later Pershing's expedition into northern Mexico.

1915-34 - Haiti - July 28, 1915 to August 15, 1934 - To maintain order during a period of chronic and threatened insurrection.

threatened insurrection.

1916-24 — Dominican Republic — May 1916 to September 1924 — To maintain order during a period of chornic and threatened insurrection.

1917-18 — World War I. Fully declared.

declared.

1917-33 - Cuba - To protect American interests during an insurrection and subsequent unsettled conditions. Most of the United States armed forces left Cuba by August 1010 but the secondaries remained at 1919, but two companies remained at Camague, until February 1922.

1918-19 - Mexico - After withdrawal of the Pershing After expeditions, our troops entered Mexico in pursuit of bandits at least three times in 1919 and six in 1919. In August 1918 American and Mexican August 1916 American and Mexican troops fought at Nogales.

1918-20 — Panama — For police duty according to treaty stipulations, at Chiriqui, during election disturbances and subsequent unrest.

1918-20 - Soviet Russia - Marines 1918-20 - Soviet Russia - Marines were landed at and near Vladivostok in June and July to prosteet the American consulate and other points in the fighting between the Bolshevik troops and the Czech Army which had Jayorsed Siberia from the western front. A joint proclamathy of conceptors overnment and need the contractions of the contraction of the contraction of the contraction. emergency government and ne Trans issued by the American, Ja Bertish, French, and Wuchang to to the missionium retired on being warned year.

A small landing force language striken, French, and Consultation private proper was a significant of the proper was a significant was a signif

A handful of marines took Murrian coat (near (Norway) be furnian coat (near (near (Norway) be furnian coat (near (nea protect the United ra io Station and property on Sand Bay of Vladivostok.

March 14 – A compassion ashore for a few provect lives during a Kiukiang. Unternala – April 9 to 27

ct the American Legation merican interests, such as the case station, during a period of fighting between Unionists and the Government of Guatemala.

Government of Guatemala.

1921 - Panama-Costa Rica American naval squadrons demonstrated in April on both sides of the Isthmus to prevent war between the two countries over a boundary 1922 - Turkey - September and October - A landing force was sent ahore with consent of both Greek and Turkish authorities to protect American lives and property when the Turkish Nationalists entered Smyrna. 1924 - Honduras - February 28 to March 31, September 10 to 15 - To protect American lives and interests during election hostilities.

1924 - China - September -Marines were landed to protect Americans and other foreigners in Shanghai during Chinese factional hostilities.

1925 - China - January 15 to August 29 - Fighting of Chinese factions accompanied by riots and demonstrations in Shanghai necessitated landing American forces to protect lives and property in the International Settlement.

iternational Settlement.
1925 - Honduras - April 19 to 21
To protect foreigners at La Celba uring a political upheaval.
1925 - Panama - October 12 to 23

Strikes and rent riots led to the landing of about 600 American troops to keep order and protect American interests. 1926-33 - Nicaragua - May 7 to 1926-33 - Musrargua - May 7 to June 5, 1926; August 27, 1926, to January 3, 1933 - The coup d'etat of General Chamorro aroused revolutionary activities leading to the landing of American marines to protect the interests of the United States. United States forces came and went

United States forces came and went, but seem not to have left the country entirely until January 3, 1933. Their work included activity against the outlaw leader Sandino in 1928.

1926 — China — August and September — The Nationalist attack on Hankow necessitated the landing of American naval forces to protect American citizens. A small guard was maintained at the consulate general even after September 16, when the rest of the forces were withdrawn. of the forces were withdrawn.

Likewise, when Nationalist forces captured Kiukiang, naval forces were landed for the protection of foreigners November 4 to 6

China - February 1927 -Fighting at Shanghai caused American naval forces and marines to be increased there. In March a naval guard was stationed at the American consulate at Naking after Nationalist consulate at Naking after Nationalist forces captured the city. American and British destroyers later used shell fire to protect Americans and other foreigners. "Following this incident additional forces of marines and naval vessels were ordered to China and stationed in the vicinity of Shanghai and Tientein against President Gerardo Machado haval forces demonstrated but no anding was made. 1940 — Newfoundland, Bermuda, Lucia, Bahamas, Jamaica, Antigua, inidad, and British Guiana — Troops re sent to guard air and naval bases hained by negotiation with Great ain. These were sometimes called l-lease bases.

1933 - Cuba - During a revolution gainst President Gerardo Machado

l-lease bases. 941 – Greenland – Taken under otection of the United States in il.

941 – Netherlands (Dutch Guiana)

941 – Netherlands (Dutch Guiana) In November the President ordered merican troops to occupy Dutch Guiana but by agreement with the letherlands government in exile. Brazil ooperated to protect aluminium ore supply from the bauxite mines in 1941 - Iceland - Taken under the protection of the United States, with consent of its Government, for strategic reasons.

1941 - Germany - Sometime in the 1941 – Germany – Sometime in the spring the President ordered the Navy to patrol ship lanes to Europe. By July our warships were convoying and by September were attacking German submarines. There was no authorization of Congress or declaration of war. In November the Neutrality Act was partly repealed to protect military aid to Britain, Russia, 1941-45 - Germany, Italy, Japan, etc. – World War II. Fully declared. 1942 – Labrador. – Army-Navy air bases established.

since 1945

1950 - Korean action

1962 – Cuba 1964 – Vietnam 1970 Cambodis

> Wednesday evening, May 6, WTIC Channel 3 in Hartford aired an editorial condemning the actions of the University of Hartford.

> On Thursday, May, 7, Acting Chancellor Hector Prud'homme and Henry Roberts, Chairman of the Board of Regents called the President of WTIC Leonard Patricelli and demanded equal

At the Hartford Seminary Foundation, a vote on the Moratorium was passed to last through Monday. The vote to continue a Moratorium will be on Monday. The number of the Central Information Desk is 232-

In regards to the March on In regards to the March on Washington, George Washington University will be open as a Housing Center. Four buses will be leaving Friday (no time announced yet). The buses will return Saturday night. Call either 255-1011 Ext. 307 or 259-4141 for information. WWUH, WHCN is available for any broadcast of information. Or call The Other Voice for clarification.

information. Or call The Other Voice for clarification. The Hartford Seminary Foundation students and faculty will hold a Memorial Service in Bushnell Park at 3 p.m. on May 10.