

Ecological Holiday

Chancellor Woodruff announced today that all classes scheduled for Earth Day, Wednesday April 22 are CANCELLED. The chancellor said that he made the decision to cancel Wednesday classes in order to allow students to participate in the special activities planned in observance of Earth Day. He added that the University has an obligation not only to the students, but to the entire community, to support anti-pollution activities.

EARTH DAY ACTIVITIES

- 8-10a.m.: Lecture Series. Pesticides and Cells; Waste Disposal; Noise Pollution.
- 10-11 a.m.: Lecture Series. Water Pollution. Joseph Maselli, Water Resources Laboratories.
- 1-3 p.m.: Afternoon Film Festival, Auerbach Auditorium.
- 1-4 p.m.: Teach-out. Speakers on I-291 problem. West Hartford Green.
- 4 p.m. (approximate time): Bicycle parade to Bushnell Park from West Hartford Green.
- 8 p.m.: Panel discussion: "Are present or planned uses of the Conn. River consistent with public health and a quality environment?" Participants from the Water Resources Commission, Audubon Society, Army Corps of Engineers, and Capitol Region Planning Area. So. Cafeteria.
- 11 p.m.-7 a.m.: All-night camp-out and ecology discussion. Hog River.